

Biography of Francine Mahak

Francine Mahak is a consultant in technical and business communications, with two decades of professional experience consulting and training in workplace communications.

She has designed and facilitated over 500 writing and presentations workshops for organizations such as the Utah Office of Inspector General, Salt Lake County, Los Alamos National Laboratory, GE Healthcare, Pfizer, General Motors, and the U.S. Postal Service.

Currently, Dr. Mahak is the career coach for MS and PhD students in Science & Engineering at the University of Utah, and manages the Graduate Student Career Coaching program campus-wide.

